

On Wednesday, February 25, 2009, at approximately 8:15 P.M., officers from the Cleburne Police Department responded to a hotel in the 2000 block of North Main Street because of a reported armed robbery. When officers arrived, they learned that two white, possibly Hispanic, male suspects entered the business and demanded money. One subject was armed with a gun and the other was carrying a crow bar. The suspects, depicted below are wearing clear masks.
